DAKOTA DATEBOOK
Shootout in Minot

On June 29 in 1922, the Ward County Independent reported quite a bit of excitement about a shooting in Minot. A policeman was wounded and the shooter was killed.

Mrs. L.G. Middleton, age 19, and her sister Nellie Sprague, age 21, had gone to a traveling carnival. There they met carnival workers Arthur Poole and Jesse Gibson. Mr. Middleton, described as hardworking and well-respected, complained to the police that his wife had taken up with one of the carneys and had been away from home for several nights.

On June 23, police learned that Mrs. Middleton had gone to the West Hotel with Poole. There they registered as man and wife, as did Sprague and Gibson. Three officers were sent to the hotel at four o'clock in the morning. Two of them watched the stairs as officer J. Sharrar knocked on the door of the room occupied by Poole and Middleton. He called out, identifying himself as a police officer.

Poole got out of bed, put on his pants, and grabbed his gun. Sharrar reported that he could hear Poole loading the gun, and he heard Mrs. Middleton cry out, "Don't shoot, honey!" But Poole opened the door and started shooting. Two bullets hit the officer in the legs, but he fired back. The first bullet missed Poole and hit the door jamb. But the second hit Poole in the head, and the man fell to the floor. He died almost immediately.

Mrs. Middleton, Sprague, and Gibson were arrested for indecency and lewd behavior. Gibson said he had warned his friend about "stepping out" with a married woman. Poole had carried a gun because he was afraid that the angry husband would shoot him if given the chance.

The coroner's inquest was held two days later. A large crowd turned out to observe, and many people were turned away. The inquest quickly came to the conclusion that Poole was killed in a case of self-defense.

Poole's body was to be shipped to his family in Ohio. We find no report of the consequences of lewd and indecent behavior by Mrs. Middleton, Gibson, and Sprague.

Jon Wumkes asked why the gravel on the lawns was worse than previous years from the streets snow removal and what can be done in the future. The streets were not froze prior to the first snow so the gravel stuck to the snow when moved. The City will get someone to sweep the edge of the lawns along the gravel roadways. As for the future, have someone lined up earlier to sweep. Also mentioned was the SE corner of Sykeston St and Main are eroding more.

Ben Johnston was questioning what was going to be done about the sewer backing up around town.

Ben suggested a couple alternatives before digging up the streets; use a camera to see if there is excessive build up and possibly get the lines cleaned yearly. Rick Richter explained that Jason Hovdeness would be checking into the issue in the near future.

Kim and Chris were here to request a special off premises license to have a Beer Garden across from the City/Fire Hall during the 140th Celebration in July. License was approved 1st by Dennis and 2nd by Jerome.

Bev Hafner had some paperwork that needed signing dealing with gaming. Rick asked if she could get the City a copy of the Community Fund request forms. Paperwork was signed and forms delivered.

Brad Tweed requested that a post be moved back a few feet at the end of Main St to make it easier to get equipment past. Request granted and Brad will move the post. Brad informed the Council that the Fire Department had the same insurance on their policy that was on the City's policy. Kathy stated she talked to the Insurance Company and was informed that the Fire Department would be taken off the City's policy and reimbursed the premium that was paid.

Richard Hatch asked if the City was going to gravel the streets this spring/summer. It will depend on the City's finances after other expenses were paid.

Chris McIntosh asked if he could go around and drag the streets when time allows him to do it.

Council members thanked him and said go ahead that the help would be appreciated.

Sykeston Legion will be open on Sunday May 21st conducting a Yoga class with the Bar open. Sunday opening is $5.00 and was paid.

Previously discussed was a City clean-up prior to the 140th Celebration. A roll off dumpster will be brought in to assist with the clean-up. The items that are not allowed in the regular dumpsters is what this one will be used for like furniture. It will cost about $1600 to rent. A request for funding from The Community Club will be submitted and one for porta potties for down by the boat dock. The porta potties would tentatively be in place from Memorial Day to Labor Day. Also the Merry-go-round across from the old school will have the lumber replaced in the near future. The City received an anonymous donation that was specified to assist with the purchase of the box scraper. Jerome was asked to drag the areas that the City mows that have big chunks of grass from the snow removal. Rick will look into the price for Mosquito Spraying. The Water Tower will be filled around the middle of this month. There has been complaints about rats within city limits. One vehicle had wires chewed off and dead ones seen by a building. Please use appropriate measures to assist in taking care of this issue.

Water meters and water bills was discussed. Rick and Jon will go around and make a list of the houses that still have the old meters when they deal with the curb stops that need to be shut off or turned on.

The old meters were suppose to be replaced after the new system was installed. It is time to get all the meters updated to the current system. For the meters that need to be replaced, a payment plan of $20 per month for 12 months to be added to the water bill or add as a special to the property tax were a couple of options for payment if needed. REMINDER: If water bills are more than 3 months behind, water could and shall be shut off.

Meeting adjourned at 8:10pm
Next meeting June 13, 2023 at 6:30pm
